Miss Emily Witte a third grade teacher at Coralville Central Elementary school, explains that "the kids love when the student-athletes are here". She explains that her students relate very well to the student-athletes because sports is "something they see all the time". "We have some students who may not get the all the attention they need and that one on one interaction giving them that little bit of time can make all the difference in the world for a student".

Perseverance. Respect. Integrity.
Determination. Equality.

According to Becca Bender, Coralville Central's family resource advocate, it is clear that the Hawkeye pride program has an impact on the students at Coralville Central.

"I get lots of requests from teachers to have those student-athletes in their rooms because they are such positive role models."

Bender described the activities that student athletes do as ranging from spending time on the playground working on soccer skills, or sitting outside a classroom helping a student read or work on math assignments.

Hawkeye P.R.I.D.E began in 2002 as a way for student-athletes to promote the qualities of good character in elementary schools in the Iowa City and Coralville area.

“It is one of the most rewarding opportunities that I have taken part in here at the university. Helping out the kids really makes me realize what is important in life.”
-Brian Bullington (Men's Golf)

“I'm so happy that the PRIDE volunteers and I can bring so much joy into that school. As student athletes, we are given so many opportunities that many other students don't get to experience so it feels great to be able to give back to the community that supports us.”
-Ali Gattone (Women's Track)

STUDENT PROFILE:

JAHISHA THOMAS - WOMEN'S TRACK

Where are you from?

I was born and raised in the United Kingdom, South London.

What are you majoring in?

I am a freshman majoring in Microbiology.

How has being a Hawkeye affected your life?

Even though I'm from across seas, I was welcomed into to the track team and immediately was immersed in the level of support and team spirit for each other.

What other talents or interests do you have?

I am constantly singing. For me, singing is a method that calms the soul. When I sing, I'm happy, or when I'm nervous...it gives me something else to focus on or express my emotions in a different way.
