

SEEK AN ADVOCATE - 24 HOUR ASSISTANCE

RVAP
(319) 335-6000

Domestic Violence Intervention Program
(319) 351-1043

Monsoon United Asian Women of Iowa
(866) 881-4641

An advocate can confidentially answer questions, provide information about options, and help with safety planning.

Victims have a right to include an advocate in meetings with University administrators, law enforcement, medical personnel, and in court proceedings.

SEEK MEDICAL ASSISTANCE

UIHC Emergency Treatment Center
(319) 356-2233

Mercy Hospital
(319) 339-3600

A sexual assault medical exam ensures:

- 1.) Physical injuries that may have occurred are promptly identified and addressed
- 2.) Victims receive medication for prevention of pregnancy, HIV, or other infections
- 3.) Evidence is collected by a Sexual Assault Nurse Examiner and preserved for a criminal investigation or University complaint now or in the future.

UI CONFIDENTIAL RESOURCES

RVAP
(319) 335-6000

University Counseling Services
(319) 335-7294

Ombudsperson
(319) 335-3608

Women's Resource and Action Center
(319) 335-1486

Faculty and Staff Services (EAP)
(319) 335-2085

Research suggests that victims who work with a counselor or advocate heal more quickly and experience less postsecondary trauma.

MAKE A COMPLAINT OR CONSULT ABOUT UI POLICIES/PROCEDURES

Office of the Sexual Misconduct Response Coordinator
(319) 335-6200

Office of Equal Opportunity and Diversity
